ORDER:

The Commissioner for Cooperation and Registrar of Cooperative Societies, A.P., Hyderabad and the Dist., Collector, Medak in the references read above have informed that Sri D. Raghu (Son of late Laxmi Narsimham, Ex/Head Master, P.S. Thimmapur) who belongs to B.C(B) community was appointed conditionally on compassionate grounds as 'Typist' in the O/o District Cooperative Officer, Sangareddy, that he should pass both higher grade type writing qualification in English and Telugu within the period of 2 years and the individual joined in duty on 5.11.1997, that When the individual was asked to submit the certificates of acquiring Typewriting qualifications after the stipulated period, he failed to produce the same. Since, the individual had not acquired the required qualification within the stipulated time, the Joint Registrar/District Cooperative Officer issued a Show Cause Notice to the individual on 9.10.2002 and 4-11-2002 to submit his willingness to take the lower post of Attender. The individual, to avert the proposed action and for the immediate relief, approached the Hon'ble AP Administrative Tribunal, filed O.A.No.10225/2002 and got stay orders for continuation of his services as Typist. The Hon'ble AP Administrative Tribunal, Hyderabad in its Judgment dt. 27.1.2005 has ordered to continue the service of Sri D. Raghu, Typist on the grounds that the applicant had secured the Typewriting qualification in Telugu on 9.4.2003. Against the above orders of Hon'ble A.P.Administrative Tribunal, the District Cooperative Officer, Medak has filed Writ Petition No.13102/2005 in Hon'ble High Court of A.P. The Hon'ble High Court has issued interim orders of status-quo in the matter. The District Collector has further stated that, as on date, the W.P. is still pending and the individual is representing for extension of time for passing Telugu Typewriting (Higher Grade) from 5.11.2002 to 17.2.2003 on par with the case of Sri B.V. Moses, Typist, office of the Divisional Cooperative Officer, Vijayawada who was given extension of time to acquire such qualification of Telugu Higher Grade Typewriting Examination vide G.O.Rt.No. 1143, A&C Deptt., dated 9.11.2006.

2. The Commissioner for Cooperation and Registrar of Cooperative Societies, A.P., Hyderabad has stated that the individual joined duty as Typist on 5.11.1997. Government have provided a total time of 5 years to pass the required qualification, thus the individual should acquire the qualification of Typewriting Higher Grades in English and Telugu by 5.11.2002. He has acquired the Typewriting qualification in Higher Grade English and Lower Grade in Telugu within stipulated period. The individual has appeared for examination during January 2003 and he passed the required qualification on 09.04.2003. He has therefore requested the Government to issue orders relaxing the periods for acquiring Typewriting qualification and kindly accord permission for withdrawal of W.P. filed by the District Collector, Medak.

3. Government after careful consideration of the matter, hereby relax the period from 5-11-2002 to 09.04.2003 in favour of Sri D. Raghu, Typist, office of the Divisional Cooperative Officer, Sangareddy who appointed on compassionate grounds, for having acquired the requisite qualification of Typewriting Higher Grade in Telugu on 09.04.2003 beyond the stipulated period of 5 years for acquiring qualification, while permitting the District Collector, Medak to withdraw the W.P. filed in W.P.No.13102 of 2005.

4. The Commissioner for Cooperation and Registrar of Cooperative Societies, A.P., Hyderabad/the District Collector, Medak, Sangareddy, shall take necessary action accordingly.
